JUSTICE, EQUITY, DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

As an organization, Community Market humbly recognizes the need to practice basic justice, equity, and nonviolence in our everyday activities, professionally and personally. We therefore accept the responsibility to dismantle racist systems and gender disparities, as well as any ideologies that unwittingly betray our common human rights and needs, within our scope of service. In practice, we aim to cultivate the diversity and inclusivity that will serve to sustain healthy human interdependence. To provide an oppression-free and equitable work environment is our goal in serving the greater community..
